Yorkville EDC's "Aiming For Success" 4th Annual Job & Career Fair

The "Aiming For Success Career and Job Fair" will be held Tuesday, March 29th from 10AM to 2PM in the Yorkville High School Cafeteria, 797 Game Farm Road, in Yorkville. This location offers greater room to accommodate the multitude of businesses and prospective employee candidates. Please remind anyone that you feel would benefit from this important annual event!!!

We are finalizing the companies participating in the fair. It's not too late to add your business name to the growing businesses who will be represented. Contact the YEDC this week, so that your business will be included in the extensive marketing for the event.

Professionals from the attending companies will be taking applications and conducting on-site interviews for positions such as account executive, administrative assistant, bank teller, general office, general warehouse, mechanical, nursing, medical tech, sales rep, manager, patrol officer, real estate sales, receptionist, recreation supervisors, security, and summer intern, to name just a few.

Attendees should bring résumés, and professional dress is recommended. Workshops will be available on interviewing at 10AM and 11AM. Representatives from local employment services will be on hand to explain training and skills match programs. Employee candidates will also have the opportunity to have their resume privately critiqued to assist in making themselves more marketable. Confidential skills assessment testing will also be available, for those considering modifying careers, or exploring new opportunities. For more information, call the Yorkville Economic Development Corporation at 630-553-0843.

Business Assistance Expo – 2005

“BUILDING YOUR COMPETITIVE EDGE”

During the past four years, the “YEDC” has strived to build relationships with organizations and agencies that are able to provide direct assistance to the Yorkville business community. We have formed alliances with representatives from such groups as the State of Illinois (DCEO), the SBA, the Office of the State Treasurer, and NIU. These agencies assist business with needs such as low interest loan programs; training and workforce development programs; technical and marketing specialists; and entrepreneur, women’s and small business development.

In order to allow easier access to these programs by the Yorkville business community, the Yorkville Economic Development Corporation is pleased to sponsor a Business Assistance Expo titled “BUILDING YOUR COMPETITIVE EDGE”. Over twelve statewide agencies, spotlighting more than twenty specialties will join together at the Historical Kendall County Courthouse on Wednesday, May 4th from 10AM to 2PM. This event will be held with an open “trade fair” atmosphere, with time for the business community to learn about the programs they may find useful and beneficial.

This event is a “must attend” by anyone you know who may be thinking of starting a new business, growing a current business, or with the objective of creating a more profitable and efficient existing business.

Additional information regarding the “Business Assistance Expo” will be available very soon. Please mark your calendars to allow yourself or a key staff member time to explore these programs. We hope to see you at the “Business Assistance Expo” on Wednesday, May 4th.

Opening Soon...

We would like to provide you with an update on businesses preparing to open in Yorkville.
