Wanted...Land and Buildings "FOR SALE" or "FOR LEASE"

Please let the YEDC office know if you are aware of any industrial or retail space becoming available in the near future. Also, please pass this word onto any Yorkville property owner you know, who might have access to commercial or industrial space.

We receive multiple inquiries on a daily basis, and would like to provide prospective businesses with accurate information on properties or buildings available for sale or to be leased. Some landowners may not be aware of this important link of information that the YEDC provides. If you have questions on land and building availability, please contact us at any time at 630-553-0843.

Countdown to the

YEDC FOURTH ANNUAL MEETING!!!!

There is still time to make your reservation for this IMPORTANT EVENT. This year we will be recognizing FIVE area businesses for their development, business expansion, or redevelopment efforts. Ralph's Place will once again provide a specially designed luncheon buffet for the YEDC. Panera Bread will also again provide a fabulous dessert selection, and breadbaskets.

We are expecting over 200 individuals to join us this year. The YEDC membership has grown from 124 members at last year's 3rd annual meeting to an incredible 155 members, as of this date. Use this opportunity to get to meet and know representatives of developers, brokers, and businesses new to Yorkville, and revisit with past business acquaintances, and public officials.

As you know, we are very pleased to have Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity Director, Jack Lavin as our keynote speaker. Mr. Lavin is a dynamic speaker, and has a passion for job creation and business expansion in Illinois. We expect a lively, informative and notable presentation, and consider ourselves truly honored and privileged to have Mr. Jack Lavin with us this year.

Reservations must be made by Monday, October 11th. If you are unable to have your reservation card and payment to us by that date, please contact the YEDC office (630-553-0843) to inform us with the number and names of attendees in your party. We will work with you to accommodate special needs.

The YEDC Board and staff are looking forward to seeing each of you on Wednesday, October 20th at Noon at the Beecher Center. We have had a wonderfully successful year, and this is our opportunity to recognize achievements, say thanks to our partners and members, and look forward to an outstanding future for the Yorkville business community!
